

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, John Rostyne and Virginia Corbin exchanged their wedding vows on September 6, 1957, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 60 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, John and Virginia were blessed with children and grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, John and Virginia have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

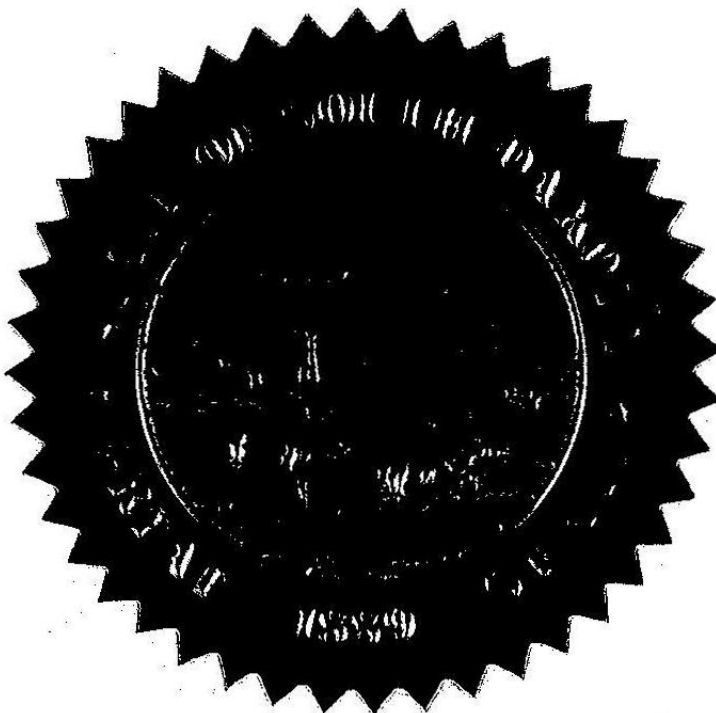

Whereas, John and Virginia will observe their 60th Wedding Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as their family gathers to honor their wedding anniversary; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this special occasion in the lives of these two people who have lived exemplary lives for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 6, 2017, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
